Description

One feature that really puts me of using this application is the poor photo management. I really don't like the film strip method. A library feature or even a folder tree would be much better just like lightroom and rawtherapee.

Because of this poorly implemented feature makes me not want to use it.

Well, there is a folder view in the collect module. But I guess you are not so much opposed to calling a folder "filmroll" but that you have to import images. Well, tough luck. It's how we roll.
